

Friendship Friday

Lola Mae and her mum have very kindly made yellow ribbon badges to sell on Friendship Friday to raise money for Kidscape, a charity which works to prevent bullying and supporting children and families.

These will be on sale at break time on Friday for 50p.

Children can then proudly wear their badges with pride to show they are standing up to bullying and promoting friendship and kindness.

Friendship Friday

Lola Mae and her mum have very kindly made yellow ribbon badges to sell on Friendship Friday to raise money for Kidscape, a charity which works to prevent bullying and supporting children and families.

These will be on sale at break time on Friday for 50p.

Children can then proudly wear their badges with pride to show they are standing up to bullying and promoting friendship and kindness.