

World book Day 2018

This year, we will be celebrating World Book Day on Thursday 1st March.

We would like to ask the children to come to school dressed as a character from their favourite book OR if they would prefer to wear their school uniform, to bring a 'prop' which would give a clue as to what their favourite book is!

Competition time....

We are running a 'Book in a jar' competition to celebrate World Book Day. Children are invited to think about how a favourite book could be represented in a simple jar.

There are some examples below for you to have a look at. Any clear jar can be used, a coffee jar, jam jar or other. You can put carefully chosen items to represent your book into your jar, selected quotes from your book, perhaps even clues about its characters or setting.

Please make sure that any 'Book in a jar' competition entries are clearly labelled with the book that is being represented, your child's full name and year group.

All entries must be in school by the morning of Wednesday 28th February for judging. Winners will be announced on Thursday 1st March in our World Book Day assembly and the jars will be available for viewing by the whole school as part of our World Book Day celebrations.

Good luck!
